EXPLANATIONS

Filing of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case:

A bankruptcy case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by or against the debtors listed in this Notice, and an order for relief has been entered. Chapter 11 allows a debtor to reorganize or liquidate pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless confirmed by the court. You may be sent a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you might have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will be sent notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is serving, the debtor will remain in possession of the debtor's property and may continue to operate any business.

Creditors May Not Take Certain Actions:

Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code § 362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail, or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures.

Meeting of Creditors:

A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time, and location listed in this notice. The debtors' representative must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date without further notice.

Claims:

A Proof of Claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. You may look at the schedules that have been or will be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office (or view electronically at www.nvb.uscourts.gov. Click on PACER.). If your claim is scheduled and is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, it will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless you file a Proof of Claim or you are sent further notice about the claim. Whether or not your claim is scheduled, you are permitted to file a Proof of Claim. If your claim is not listed at all or if your claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, then you must file a Proof of claim by the "Deadline to File a Proof of Claim," once set by the Court, or you might not be paid any money on your claim against the debtor in the bankruptcy case.

Discharge of Debts:

Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See Bankruptcy Code § 1141(d). A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor, except as provided in the plan.
